

December 13, 2005

NC Department of Transportation
Leadership & Management
Development Association

Holiday Luncheon

Guest Speaker: Herb Henderson

Outstanding Member Award

Presented to Peggy Seymore. Peggy has attended all the meetings this year as well as most of last years. She participates or volunteers in as many activities as possible and donates her time throughout the year. She also actively recruits new members. If you need someone to count on being there, Peggy is that person.

Most Valuable Board Member

Presented to Amanda Smith. As Chair of the Community Involvement Committee, she has taken it to new heights, supporting the NC Food Bank, charity races, and HOBY leadership seminars, collecting school supplies and donations for hurricane relief efforts. She has supported the Communications and Programs Committees keeping the chapter website updated and coordinating attendance and refreshments for programs. She can be counted on to do a terrific job.

The Tree Award

Presented to Mike Reese, for his commitment to helping others and enthusiastic and unselfish dedication to working in the community. Mike has served as the Transportation Coordinator for the Special Olympics of North Carolina for the past six years, which is indicative of his drive for public service. In turn, he is directly influencing the quality of life for all the athletes that compete in the games. In addition to Special Olympics, He is also extremely active in his church and his sons' Boy Scouts troop. Mike's leadership in the community is not only a testament to his character as a person, but also reflects well on all NCDOT employees.

Pictures

More Pictures

Thank You

